

The Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

Arent the middle class and lower class already poor enough. I am tired of paying a higher tax on things especially when I am already paying $2.30 for a gallon a gas.(someone had to pay for the Presidents inauguration,huh!?!) Im sure this letter wont matter, as you are already approving the tax. Whatever.

Not Sincerely Andrew Dearing 815 Moore Road

Sincerely,

Andrew Dearing
815 Moore Road
Peoria, Illinois 61605